

GROWING TOGETHER, LEADING FORWARD

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This isn't your typical leadership training—and it wasn't designed to be. For women in agriculture, leadership often means balancing tradition with innovation, responsibility with resilience. Our academy offers something different: a space to step back, reflect, and reconnect with who you are—not just what you do.

Through four in-person, two-day sessions, you'll join a supportive community of women who understand your world and share your values. Together, you'll explore leadership from the inside outrooted in authenticity, shaped by lived experience, and strengthened by connection.
